Instructor Authorization Training Program

February 18 - 22, 2019

Academy of Fire Science
Montour Falls, NY

The Instructor Authorization Training Program (IATP) is designed to ensure training consistency and effectiveness in each course discipline offered in the New York State Fire Service Training Program. This forum brings together instructors who participate in the New York State Fire Service Training Program seeking authorization to instruct courses. The Instructor Authorization Training Program is offered three times a year at the New York State Academy of Fire Science and is supplemented by regional course authorization deliveries.
